Heard From
July 26-81

Frank Altimirano was sentenced a few days ago by the Judge of the San Diego Superior Court to one year in the State Prison for robbery. He had assisted the District Attorney in convicting three parties of selling liquor to Indians, and so only a light sentence was imposed. Altimirano is well known in San Jose, and has served a term in San Quentin for a robbery committed in this city. He was arrested for a burglary here after his release, but the evidence was weak, and so he escaped.

Jose Maria Salazar, convicted of grand larceny, then stood up.

The Court—You have hertofore been proceeded against, etc. I have made inquiry into your antecedents and find them extremely bad. Your guilt has been established beyond doubt. This is the fourth or fifth time you have been convicted of the same offense, and you have often been before the courts for minor transgressions. For such a character and such a crime there is no reason for the lenity of this Court. It hopes nothing for your reformation. The judgment is that you be confinee in the State Prison for a period of six years. April 9-81

J. M. Salazar has been brought to the County Jail from Gilroy to serve out a sentence of 90 days for petit larceny.

Morning Times Aug 29 = 1880

Wanted at Hollister.

Times ——— Nov 27-80

J. M. Salazar, whose sentence of three months' imprisonment in the County Jail for horse stealing expired on Wednesday, was yesterday turned over to Sheriff Brown, of San Benito county, where he is wanted on a charge of stealing a horse belonging to J. I. Hodges, of Hollister.

Jose Maria Salazar, who was arrested for stealing a horse from the Fashion Stables in last October, was tried in the Justice's Court, at Hollister on Saturday, pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to forty days in the County Jail. Dec 14-80

J. M. Salazar was brought from Salinas yesterday, by Officer J. Hobson, on a charge of grand larceny committed in Gilroy. He will be arraigned on the 9th.

Hugh A Riley
assault to murder convicted and sentenced to 14 years in states Prison June 2nd 1876

THE SAN JOSE DAILY RECORD

TUESDAY, AUGUST 1, 1882.

Hugh Reilly's Confession.

Several years ago Hugh Reilly was convicted in Judge Payne's Court of assault to murder Jerry Lynch, and sentenced to fourteen years confinement in the State Prison. On the trial Lynch swore that he called one night at Reilly's house near Ashworth's crossing, and asked for a match. Having gotten it, he left. Reilly followed him and struck him on the head with an axe as he was going through the gate. He managed to crawl across the road to another house and called for help, Reilly continuing the while to kick him on the head and cut him until he was left for dead. Reilly then cut out his pocket, which contained $500, and took the money. On the stand Reilly denied all knowledge of the affair, but as the bloody axe had been found and his conduct when arrested was very suspicious, the jury found him guilty.

Reilly, who does not expect to be released till his sentence has expired, now confesses that he did attack Lynch, but tells as a reason for the assault a very different tale from that related by Lynch. He says that Lynch had frequently insulted his wife, and on the fateful evening, thinking Reilly absent, he again came to the house and grossly insulted her. Reilly hearing this, was roused to uncontrollable anger, struck Lynch with the axe, and beat him afterwards as stated. The charge of robbery Reilly entirely denies. His reason for not telling the truth on the trial was that his attorney had advised him that his only plea should be "not guilty." His lawyer insisted that his only chance of escape lay in doing this, as he expected the prosecution would be unable to make out a case by circumstantial evidence. Reilly says that if he had been allowed to tell the truth, as he desired to do, he could have his evidence corroborated by many. If what he tells now is true (and there are not a few that believe it to be so), his offense had certainly strong palliative circumstances.

Discharged from San Quentin Yesterday.

Billy Berger, who was convicted of murder in the second degree, about nine years ago and sentenced to ~~fifteen~~ Twenty years in the State Prison, will be released in a few months. His term has been greatly reduced by the provisions of the Goodwin Act. Billy is said to be looking remarkably well, and confinement seems to have agreed with him.

William O'Grady, for burglarizing the drug store of William Pickering, Stockton street and Broadway, was to-day held to answer in $3,000 by the Police Judge.

SF Post
July 13-80

A Shrewd Dodge.

About the middle of last month, a man named William O'Grady, under arrest for burglary, and confined in the County Jail, awaiting trial, notified one of the jailers that he stood in need of medical assistance, as he feared he was suffering from small-pox. Dr. Blach, the City Physician, was sent for, and he visited the prisoner, who claimed that he was suffering from the various symptoms whi h usually accompany an attack of variola. Subsequently Dr. Stivers and other physicians were called in, and upon consultation, it was decided that the prisoner was shamming, with a view to be sent to the Pest House, so that he might escape from there. In his cell was found a small vial which had contained Croton oil, which he had used upon his body to produce an eruption on the skin, which in appearance is similar to that produced by small-pox. A few days since, Frank Wilson and John Maney, convicted of burglary and awaiting sentence, also tried the "small-pox dodge," but, like O'Grady, they were unable to deceive the doctors, and after sentence were taken to San Quentin.

Jan 17 Billy Berger. 1882

William Berger, or "Billy" Berger, as he is better known, will be discharged from San Quentin on the 14th of February next. He was convicted of murder in the second degree in 1873, and sentenced Judge Belden to twenty years in the State Prison. In 1876, on account of bravery at the fire in San Quentin, the imprisonment was commuted by Governor Irwin to fifteen years. The Goodwin Bill has served to otherwise shorten the term, and Billy will come out, after having served less than one-half the original sentence. The man he killed was William Arrowsmith, and the tragedy occured in a Gilroy "cat" house. Billy had formerly been Constable of the Township, and in some respects was an efficient officer. Doubtless his long imprisonment has had a good effect upon his morals.

Daily Times — A Bad Man. — June 16 1880

McGuire, with a dozen aliases, the man tried in San Francisco the other day for the murder of a fellow convict at San Quentin, was, a few years ago, an inmate of our County Jail. He then sailed under the name of Tom Jones, and while serviug out his sentence, assaulted Abdon Leiva, the State witness against Tiburcio Vasques, and nearly effected his quietus. Leva's life was despaired of for some time, and Jones got a few months additional for his devilment. He has been found guilty of murder in the first degree for the San Quentin killing and will probably swing. He deserves to.

Joseph Matteran, who was arrested on three charges of stealing horses from Lebellie's estate, was yesterday arrested and held to appear before Judge Buckner on the 12th, with bonds fixed at $2,300. G. A. Gilhardt and P. Baltz gave the required security. April 7 '81

Joseph Matteran was examined before Judge Buckner on a charge of grand larceny, in stealing two mares, the property of the estate of August Lebailly, deceased. W. C. Kennedy appeared for the prosecution, and James R. Lowe for the defense. The testimony for the people was to the effect that on the 15th day of April, the day after Lebailly's death, the defendant went to Bare's ranch, on the University Grounds, and took the two mares without the consent of anyone, and has since secreted them. The defense sought to prove that Lebailly owed Matteran money and that the latter on the day before Lebailly's death obtained possession of the animals by permission of the owner. The prosecution, in rebuttal, contradicted some of this testimony. The case was taken under advisement, and a decision will be rendered on Thursday at 10 a. m. There are two other charges of grand larceny against Matteran. It is alleged that he took three other horses of the Lebailly estate without permission. The examination is set for the 19th.

4 Years in State Prison
Feb 5th 1877

Joseph Matteran, who was arrested on three charges of stealing horses from Lebellie's estate, was yesterday arrested and held to appear before Judge Buckner on the 12th, with bonds fixed at $2,300. G. A. Gilhardt and B. Baltz gave the required security. April 7 '81

Joseph Matteran was examined before Judge Buckner on a charge of grand larceny, in stealing two mares, the property of the estate of August Lebailly, deceased. W. C. Kennedy appeared for the prosecution, and James R. Lowe for the defense. The testimony for the people was to the effect that on the 15th day of April, the day after Lebailly's death, the defendant went to Bare's ranch, on the University Grounds, and took the two mares without the consent of anyone, and has since secreted them. The defense sought to prove that Lebailly owed Matteran money and that the latter on the day before Lebailly's death obtained possession of the animals by permission of the owner. The prosecution, in rebuttal, contradicted some of this testimony. The case was taken under advisement, and a decision will be rendered on Thursday at 10 a. m. There are two other charges of grand larceny against Matteran. It is alleged that he took three other horses of the Lebailly estate without permission. The examination is set for the 19th.

An Editor in Danger.

April 9-1884

Early yesterday afternoon E. K. Dunlap, editor of the Footlight, while returning from his home, was beset on Vine street by a drunken Mexican on horseback, who tried to run over him. The Mexican whose name is Marcus Pena, tried to run down a Chinaman before Dunlap came along. The latter was on the sidewalk and the playful Mexican endeavored by all the means in his power to impair Mr. Dunlap's usefulness in the community, and had not the editor been benighted with a good pair of legs, the result might have been disastrous. Pena was arrested later on Dunlap's complaint, and will be arraigned this morning.

A Pardon Granted to a Man who, Innocent of a Crime, was Sent to Prison.

Governor Stoneman yesterday granted a pardon to Andrew Johnson, better know to the police as "Doc." Johnson, who, in 1880, was sent to San Quentin for burglary of the first degree. In the fore part of the year named, the residence of M. Friedlander, a commercial traveller, at No. 210 Powell street, was entered in the night time, and a quantity of jewelry was stolen. Two men were seen in the room, but they escaped before an alarm was given. Subsequently "Doc." Johnson was arrested and charged with the commission of the burglary. Upon the preliminary examination before Judge Rix, and subsequently upon the trial before Judge Ferral and a jury, both Friedlander and his wife testified that the prisoner was, beyond the question of a doubt, one of the two burglars. So positive was that testimony that the jury without hesitation found the accused guilty, and in July the prisoner, who had previously been convicted of crime, was sentenced to imprisonment in San Quentin for ten years. Recently it came to the knowledge of officers connected with the detective force that the crime of which Johnson had been found guilty had been committed by Lupton and McCall, two as desperate criminals as ever walked the streets of this city, and who are now in San Quentin. The officers investigated the matter and the information they had received being incontrovertibly corroborated, they prepared a petition to the Governor asking for the pardon of Johnson. This was signed by Chief Crowley, Captain Lees and detectives Bohen, Whittaker and Coffey. Upon the statement accompanying the petition the Governer promptly granted the pardon asked for.

Aug 2-1881

Yesterday Gus Dueon was examined at Mountain View, for an assault with a deadly weapon on John Merkel last Sunday evening in Merkel's saloon at that place. It was shown at the examination that the defendant and Merkel got into a dispute about the payment for drinks. Merkel demanded pay; after some talk Dueon struck at him over the counter with a pocket knife and cut him in the back of the right hand, inflicitng a very serious wound. District Attorney Campbell appeared for the people. At the close the defendant was held to answer before the Superior Court, with bail fixed at $1,000.

After a Pardon.
Feb 15 ——— 1882
An effort is being made by the friends of Bartolo Sepulveda to have him pardoned. He was sentenced about ten years ago to imprisonment for life in San Quentin for the murder of a Frenchman at Pleasanton. Procopio was suspected, and also Juan Soto, of complicity in the same crime. The friends of Soto have always maintained that he had nothing to do with the murder; that he was not the man to commit a crime of such atrocity. The evidence against Sepulveda was purely circumstantial, but such as to leave no doubt in the minds of the jury as to his guilt. He was ably defended by F. E. Spencer, at present Judge of Department No. 2 of the Superior Court, then one of the best criminal lawyers in this part of the State. If a wrong has been done Sepulveda it should be righted, but at the same time the proofs of his innocence should be made clear before the pardoning power is exercised.

Petty Larceny.

May 28-82.

A few days ago a suit of clothes belonging to A. W. Harvey was stolen from J. B. Cuurch's wagon while standing on First street in front of Shaw & Callisch's drug store. Yesterday the coat was seen on Frank Arnold, and he being questioned stated that he had gotten it from Spero Columbo. Arnold was arrested and informed the police as to Columbo's whereabouts. That individual was also taken in. In his room were found the remainder of the suit and also two buggy robes, one almost new and the other much used. Arnold and Columbo were charged with petty larceny.

Dec 12 — Acquitted. — 1881

Francisco Cassillas was tried yesterday before a jury in Department 1, of the Superior Court, for the crime of burglary alleged to have been committed last Spring, in feloniously entering the house of Mrs. Lynch on Orchard street, in company with Eulalio Martinez, and stealing a looking-glass of a bureau and some bedclothing. Martinez, the only important witness for the State, testified that the defendant went to the house with him, and remained outside while the articles were being gathered up. Cassillas was not placed on the stand, his attorney evidently fearing the cross-examination, for the defendant soon after his arsest stated that he went inside the house, which he supposed belonged to Martinez, and danced a jig upon the floor. The jury came into Court at 5 p. m. with a verdict of not guilty. On the first ballot they stood nine for conviction and three for acquittal.

592

Louis Stellian
Misdemeanor
90 Days Co. Jail
April 21-81 Mch. 16th 1878

Louis Stelleni, a healthy vagrant, weighing at least 200 pounds, and capable of performing any kind of manual labor, was tried by Judge Buckner yesterday afternoon for disturbing the peace of Oliver Beaulien, who lives in the Willows. The evidence showed that Stellini went to the house of the prosecuting witness in the night time and rattled the windows and banged the doors until daylight. The Judge found him guilty and imposed a sentence of ninety days in the County Jail. Stellini is a chronic vagrant and for the past four years has not been known to do a stroke of work. He has been sent up for vagrancy several times. He makes his home in the Willows, sleeping out like some wild animal. During the fruit season he lives on apples, pears and peaches cribbed from the neighboring orchards. The residents of the Willows have been annoyed by him for years. He has been accustomed to come to the houses during the absence of the male members of the family, and by threats and intimidations, induce the women to give him food. By many he is believed to be crazy.

During the spring of the year 1878 Detective John Coffey, while on a return voyage from Panama on the steamer Colima, was informed that a Chinese steerage passenger had been robbed of seventy-six English sovereigns. He was asked to work up the matter, and suspicion rested upon John Smith, alias Super, and John McCormick. They were searched, and one sovereign was found on them and the remainder where hidden in a closet of the steamer. The men were placed in irons, and, upon arrival at this port, given into the custody of the Marshal. Both individuals got out on bail. McCormick was tried, found guilty, and sentenced to imprisonment in the County Jail at San Jose for nine months, and three months additional for failure to pay the fine of $150. He succeeded in breaking jail, but was recaptured in this city and returned to jail, where he served out his full term. Smith jumped his "straw-bond," and has absented himself from this city until yesterday, when he was recognized by Detective Bohen, on Kearny street, and turned over to the Federal authorities.

Herald A Dismissal. Nov 1-82

In Department 1 of the Superior Court today the charge of perjury against Mateo Andrade was dismissed at the instance of the District Attorney, upon his representation that it would be impossible to convict. The charge grew out of a certain testimony given on the 27th of last July by Andrade in the case of the people vs. Frank Perrillat, charged with residing in a house of ill-fame. The trial was had before Judge Buckner, and Perillat was acquitted. Andrade was thereupon arrested for perjury in having sworn that he saw Perillat in bed with a woman, was taken before Judge Veuve for examination. He was then discharged, but was at once re-arrested and taken before Judge Cleneay, at Santa Clara, who held him to answer. A jury was impaneled to try him in Department 1 of the Superior Court, on the 2d of October, and a mistrial resulted, the jury being unable to agree on a verdict. Andrade was remanded for another trial, and was to-day set at liberty for the reasons above stated.

ANDRADA'S PERJURY.

Aug 1 1882

The examination of Matteo Andrada, charged with perjury by Mary Campbell, was begun in Judge Veuve's Court this morning. The complaint was based on the testimony given by defendant in the case of Frank Perillat, tried in the Police Court Thursday for residing in a house of ill-fame.

Heard him testify to seeing Perillat and Mary Campbell in bed togeher. He said the door and window were open. He said he saw Perillat get up, and Mary Campbell stay in bed. He knew them well and could not be mistaken. He indentified Mary Campbell in the Court room.

Mr. Gill followed in an excellent argument for the prosecution, powerfully supported by legal authorities. Mr. Lovell replied, and at the conclusion of his argument, Judge Veuve discharged the defendant.

Matteo Andrada has been held to answer by Judge Cleneay of Santa Clara for perjury, bail fixed at $500. In his examination before Judge Veuve on the same charge, Andrada had been discharged. August-7-1882

Sheriff Williams arrived in San Jose yesterday at 10 o'clock, from Folsom, having in charge Augustus Armen, alias, "Dutch Gus," one of the principals engaged in the robbery of Wheeler's store in December last. He is implicated in several burglaries here, and is now under a five years' sentence at Folsom Branch Prison, for a burglary committed in Sacramento. He is an old convict, and it is alleged has served several terms in San Quentin.

VOID FOR UNCERTAINTY.

A Sentence Nullified Because of an Error by Jury and Judge.

Francisco Salazar and Nicolas Sepulveda were severally tried in the Superior Court of Santa Clara county for the larceny in October, 1879, of a roan steer, the property of Charles Garratt. The verdict of the jury was, "We, the jury, find the defendant guilty as charged." It was entered and read to the jurors, and by them severally declared to be the verdict, whereupon the Court ordered that the "defendant" appear for sentence at a time specified. A judgment of five years' imprisonment was entered upon the foregoing verdict against both of the defendants. Sepulveda having moved for a new trial, which motion was denied, appealed to the Supreme Court. That tribunal yesterday reversed the judgment and order of the lower Court. There being two defendants on trial the Court holds that the verdict finding the "defendant" guilty, without specifying which of the two, is void for uncertainty.

In Department 1 of the Superior Court yesterday, Mr. W. C. Kennedy moved for the discharge of Sepulveda, who, with Salazar, was convicted some time since of grand larceny. After conviction, Mr. Kennedy appealed in behalf of Sepulveda to the Supreme Court, and the judgment of the lower Court was reversed, on the ground of informality of the verdict. Mr. Kennedy's motion to discharge the prisoner yesterday was made upon two grounds: First, that the verdict being informal and not showing the guilt of this particular defendant, under sections 1161 and 1162 of the Penal Code he is entitled to discharge. Second, the jury having been discharged by the Court without a proper verdict having been rendered, the defendant has been once jeopardized, and is therefore entitled to his discharge. The motion was taken under advisement.

An Unsavory Trio.

Three bad citizens were picked up in the streets last night and installed in the city prison. One was Billy Moore, who has already served a term at San Quentin. Another gave his name as Johnson, and a third called himself Sir Walter Scott. They belong to the class who forage for the drainings of beer casks that have been set out on the sidewalks to be taken away by the brewers' trucks. They are not nice looking men, nor strictly conscientious.

SAN JOSE, June 9.—An atrocious murder was committed at Los Gatos at nine o'clock last night. Mrs. Guadalupe Flores, aged twenty, while on her way from Rogers' store to her house, was waylaid and stabbed five times. When discovered she was in a dying condition, and expired in a short time. Circumstances point to John Warsley, her former husband, as murderer. He was released from the State Prison last April, having served two years for grand larceny, and returning to San Jose found his wife had obtained a divorce during his absence and married Flores. Last Tuesday in a house in San Jose he exhibited a dagger and said he intended to kill Flores and his wife at the first opportunity. He has not yet been apprehended.

Captured in El Paso Texas and returned to San Jose tried for the murder of his wife convicted and was executed on 24 day of Oct 1884 by B F Branham Sheriff

The Case of Miguel Haas.

York 1-29

Last August a half witted German named Miguel Haas, was convicted of burglary and sentenced by Judge Belden, to two years in the State Prison. S. J. Hinds missed some law books from his office and Hass was arrested while endeavoring to sell two of them to Louis Montgomery. He said he got them from another person, not knowing them to be stolen. On this evidence he was convicted. A few days since Mr. Hinds made an important discovery. At Fanning's establishment, on St. John street, he found others of the missing books, taken from his office at the same time as the two recovered from Haas, and also ascertained the name of the party who had sold them. He is now convinced that Haas is innocent and will take immediate steps to have him pardoned.

THE CONFIDENCE MAN.

Burton Pleads Guilty to all the Charges Against Him.

Justice Buckner yesterday set the examination of the fourth charge of petit larceny against Wm. R. Burton, the confidence man, for 3 o'clock this afternoon, and fixed the amount of his bail at $100, which of course he did not give. The Justice having less confidence in him than some other people had, remanded the much-accused Burton to prison to await examination. Later in the afternoon Burton came into Court with Chief Haskell and withdrew the pleas of "not guilty," and entered the plea of "guilty" in each of the four cases. He will be sentenced at 10 o'clock this morning. The penalty the law attaches to his offense in each case is a fine not to exceed $500 or imprisonment in the County Jail for a period not to exceed six months, or both fine and imprisonment. If Burton should get the full penalty of the law in each of the cases against him, his term of imprisonment would aggregate two years and his fine $2,000.

Morning Times April 22 and 23-1880

Wm. R. Burton, the confidence man, received sentence yesterday on all four of the charges against him. He was fined $60 each on the first and seconn charges and $30 each on she third and fourth. In default of paying the fines he was committed in the county jail to serve out his fine at the rate of $1 per day, amounting in the aggregate to six months imprisonment.

Cunliff Cornered.

John Cunliff was brought to jail yesterday on a commitment from F. M. Cleneay, to serve a term of ten days imprisonment for petit larceny. The specific offense was stealing a pair of eye-glasses from his landlord, F. M. Smead, of Santa Clara. Cunliff represented himself to be a book agent and also agent for a patent hitching device. He boarded with Mr. Smead for about a week, carried a pencil stuck behind his ear, wore a business look, and wound up, it is alleged, by appropriating his landlord's eye-glasses. It is alleged also, that he came away from Santa Clara, leaving his board bill unpaid. He was found by Officer Edson Thursday eveuing with the glasses on and was taken back to Santa Clara, charged with petit larceny and was tried, convicted and sentenced to ten days in jail.

Times July 22 1880

John Cunliff, the "book agent," now in the County Jail for theft, is said to be one of the greatest frauds in the State, and men who know him, report his having been locked up in San Francisco.

The trial of Ramon Fernandez, one of the gang of incendiaries implicated in the burning of Mrs. Bruen's barn at Old Gilroy, has occupied Department 1 of the Superior Court two days, and enters upon the third to-day. The testimony has been simply a repetition of that detailed at the trial of Dillon and Godoy. The accused was himself placed on the stand yesterday, and denied, under oath, every thing stated in the confessions and testimony that have been made and given. After he had denied everything and presented himself to the Court as an angel of light, immaculate in sinlessness, the prosecution produced witnesses who were only too well acquainted with the character of Fernandez, and they painted him blacker than ever. The case will probably go to the jury to-day.

Dec — Raferty's Racket. 15-1880

Pat Raferty was arrested by Chief Haskell Saturday night for abstracting a lap-robe from a buggy belonging to Robert Aiken, residing at the Willows. Mr. Aiken was at the Social in the M. E. Church (Dr. Jewell's). His buggy was of course left standing outside, and Raferty embraced his opportunity. He was observed, followed and arrested. It would seem that Pat is addicted to picking up little inconsidered trifles. Another charge has been made against him for stealing a rake, shovel and hatchet from A. M. Converse, residing on the Alameda. A charge of petit larceny was preferred against him in each case, and he was convicted of both in the Police Court yesterday. Judge Buckner will pass sentence on him at 9 o'clock this morning.

Patrick Rafferty, charged with stealing a lap robe, was sentenced by Justice Buckner to pay a fine of eighty dollars to the people of the State of California, or in default thereof, be imprisoned for eighty days in the County Jail, and thus reverse accounts by making the people pay for his board and lodging. The robe was the property of Robert Aiken, and the defendent was sentenced on another charge of petit larceny, to pay a fine of eight dollars; or in default thereof, to serve eighty additional days in the County Jail.

Two on One.

J. Murphy, Pat Rafferty and Thomas White were arrested as drunks on Wednesday evening. They were placed in the large cell, and during the night a difficulty arose. In the morning, Murphy's head looked as if he had been playing goat with a battering ram and had got decidedly the worst of it. He alleges that he was set upon by his companions and beaten unmercifully. A charge of battery has been preferred against White and Rafferty. The latter is the hombre who assaulted old Doc Babcock in the County Jail.

Pat Rafferty and Thos White, the parties who committed a battery on J. N. Murphy in the City Prison, were yesterday sentenced to 30 days each in the County Jail. March 14-1881

Isador Salazar, a Mexican boy about 18 years of age, was taken yesterday afternoon before Justice Williamson, acting Police Justice, on a charge of petit larceny, to-wit, stealing a pistol from Ida Howard. He pleaded guilty to the charge and was sentenced to jail for 25 days.

Isador Salazar, better known as "Cachuche," appeared for sentence in Department 1 of the Superior Court yesterday forenoon and was sentenced to four months in the County Jail. He was proceeded against for resisting Officer W. D. Brown while in the discharge of his duty, in quelling a disturbance on Market street. Salazar is an old offender, and the sentence is a light one, considering his antecedents. April 17-1881

Isador Salasar, who had just served out a sentence in the County Jail for resisting an officer, was locked up in the City Prison last night for drunkenness. This morning he was given the usual dose of six days by the Police Judge. Aug 23-81

William Johnson, alias Frank Bennett, was brought before Justice Buckner, yesterday, for examination on a charge of burglary. On the night of November 25th last, it is alleged that he broke into the barn of Henry Gardner, who lives on the Alameda, and stole property consisting of agricultural implements, grates, fenders, etc., amounting in value to one hundred and fifty dollars.

Times Dec 30-80

The prisoner is an old convict, and under the name of Frank Bennett was sentenced to five years imprisonment in San Quentin, for burglary in the second degree, on the 28th of February, 1877.

John Bennett was next called. The Court said his crime exhibited an unusual gree of audacity. His antecedents had bee inquired into and they were found to be exceedingly bad. He had been convicted two or three times for similar offenses. There seemed no hope of his reformation. Bennett replied, "There certainly is." The Court replied. "I fear there is not, and the judgment is that you be confined in the Penitentiary for a term of four years."

Dec 22 — Jaged. 1880

An order of commitment has been made out by Judge Perry Dowdy of Gilroy, commanding the Sheriff of Santa Clara county to detain the bodies of Charles Edwards and John Roach who are held upon a charge of entering the store of S. Loupe of Gilroy on December 5th with intent to commit larceny. These prisoners are the same who were arrested on November 22d for having burglars' tools in their possession. They gave a different name then and pleaded their own case so skillfully that they were discharged. They are now safe in jail.

Nov 3 — Judgment Affirmed. 1881

Judgment has been affirmed by the Supreme Court in the case of the People vs. Edwards and others. The defendants were charged with entering the store of S. Loupe in Gilroy, while the evidence gave the name of the store as "Loupe's store." It was held that the variance was immaterial.

1021

Charles Edwards and John Roach were next. They were convicted of burglary in the first degree for having robbed Loupe's store at Gilroy on the night of December 5th of last year. When asked what they had to say why sentence should not be passed upon them, W. C. Kennedy, their counsel, arose and moved for an arrest of judgment and a new trial. The motion was denied. Both the defendants were then sentenced to six years sn the State Prison. They are hardened offenders, having served many senteuces on like charges. They said they thought themselves lucky in getting off with so light a sentence, expecting to reach at least ten years apiece. Roach does not look like an old criminal, but seeing at his record, one may know how his looks belie him.

Jan 31 1881

True Name Thos Flynn

Some three weeks ago Charles Edwards and John Roach were found guilty of burglary, and each sentenced to six years' imprisonment in San Quentin. They were convicted of the robbing of Loupe's store, in Gilroy, in December last. It is now said that they were the burglars who entered the Station on the C. P. R. R., at Washington Corners, in October last, and broke open the safe with a sledge, and decamped with about $300 in gold and silver coin. It is supposed they walked at the time from Redwood City to San Jose, and fearing arrest here, they secreted the money near Alviso. Yesterday morning Christian Johasson, a Scandinavian farmer living near James Murphy's, found $62.25 in silver, in an oyster can which he turned up while plowing. The money was buried under a tree near the corner of the Berryessa road. The old can also contained an envelope addressed to Charles Edwards, Montgomery's Hotel, San Francisco, and it is barely possible that this money is part of the proceeds of the robbery at Washington Corners.

March 14-81

William Jones was sentenced to 100 days imprisonment by Judge Williamson, in December last, for a battery committed on a friend at Wright's Station. He is still confined in the County Jail, and yesterday he was arraigned before Judge Buckner on a charge of burglary alleged to have been committed by him at Wright's Station, on the 19th of December last. His examination was set for March 28, at 10 o'clock. Meanwhile his bail is fixed at $500.

William Jones, charged with burglary, expressed his willingness to plead gullty to petit larceny. The District Attorney was quite willing, and suggested the matter to Judge Belden, who, learning that Jones is charged with breaking into and robbing the railroad office at Wrights, refused to permit Mr. Jones to escape in any such manner. Ramero's Rambling.

Ambrosio Ramero was arrested yesterday by Officer Martin for a complication of offenses, which together give it the serious character of a felony. Last Saturday night, while a prisoner in the city lock-up, he took two locks off a door and gate of that institution, and then scaled the fence, carrying one of the locks with him as capital stock to run him through Christmas night. He endeavored to sell the lock, but there was something too suspicious about the man and his commodity to win the confidence of speculators. Ramero is guilty—not to prejudge the case—of destroying jail property, escaping from prison, and petit larceny. He is said to be a vicious customer, giving the keepers more trouble than a half dozen ordinary offenders, notwithstanding he is only a weazened up, dark visaged little hybrid between a Spaniard and Indian. He was taken to the County Jail to await examination.

The case of the People against Ambrosio Ramirez, charged with destroying public property, was tried before Judge Belden and a jury. The jury brought in a verdict of not guilty and the prisoner was discharged. Jan 24-81

John Doe, alias Peter Simpson, was released from the City Prison yesterday morning, in which place he had been employed about the jail yard in doing odd chores. Yesterday morning before he left he broke into a room in the prison which is used for storing lost and stolen goods which are unclaimed. He cut a hole around the lock and opened the door and took two shawls, a coat, which he wore going out, a neck-tie, a pair of brass knuckles and several other articles. Officer Jones suspecting him of stealing something followed him and arrested him. On the way to the City Hall he threw away the brass knuckles, and tried to escape from the officer but failed in his attempt. He was brought before Justice Buckner, and his examination was continued until to-day to obtain further evidence against him.

A Light Sentence.

About five weeks ago Peter Simpson was arrested for drunkenness, and locked up for six days in the City Prison. Upon the expiration of his sentence he departed taking with him a number of articles among them an overcoat, a shawl, a scarf and a brass knuckle which he had stolen from a closet in the yard of the City Prison. Upon being re-arrested a part of the stolen articles was found in his possession, and he was held to answer by Judge Buckner on a charge of burglary. Yesterday he was arraigned for trial in the Superior Court before Judge Belden, and pleaded guilty. The court taking into consideration the fact of his youth and that he had been imprisoned for about a month pending his trial, sentenced him to ten days in the County Jail.

Last evening about half past 7 o'clock, James Simpson the man who a short time ago was sent to jail for stealing some things from the Police office at the close of his term in the city prison for drunkenness, was arrested by officers Stuart and Grubbs for the larceny of some brushes from Bernhardt's new grocery on First street. He and Anderson will be sentenced next Thursday morning.

Acting upon this discovery he made complaint before Judge Williamson yesterday, charging Feilin with bigamy. Chief Crowley was telegraphed immediately and an early reply was received stating that Feilin could be had upon the receipt of a warrant. A San Jose Man Held to Answer on a Serious Charge. 1881

SAN JOSE, March 26.—Benjamin Gifford, charged with outraging Emma Clark, was today held in $10,000 bail to answer before the Superior Court. The case has occupied three days in examination on the part of the State. At the conclusion of the evidence defendant's attorney moved for a discharge, and argued the motion. To-day the motion was denied, and the Court told the attorney for the defense that if he did not proceed with his case he would make an order the same as though the defense had declined to introduce testimony. The Court then made the order as above mentioned. Defendant's attorney then notified the Court that on Monday he would move to reopen the case. Judge Veuve informed him that no notice would be taken of such a motion.

The Record of Gifford, the San Jose Scoundrel. March 28-81

SF Post

Chief Crowley this morning received a letter from the Chief of Police of San Jose, requesting the record of Benjamin Gifford, the saloonkeeper ~~on the Alameda~~ at San Jose, who, a week ago, outraged Emma Clark, a convalescent, young woman, and who is now being tried for the crime. Two photographs of Gifford show him to be a man of about twenty-four years, dark complexion, black hair and mustache, heavy set, weight 135 pounds, and with a villainously low forehead. Gifford, whose aliases are Benjamin Benton, alias West, is well known as a criminal here. In January, 1879, he was arrested here charged with burglary, but the bill was ignored. On July 16, 1880, he was arrested charged with robbery, in stealing a watch. The charge was reduced to petty larceny, and he was sent to the House of Correction for six months. The record has been furnished to the San Jose authorities.

Fred Atkinson, the party who burglarized the Mint Saloon last Sunday morning, was arrested in San Mateo by Constable Moore of that place on Tuesday evening, through the medium of a card of description sent out by Chief Haskell. Yesterday he was brought to this city by Deputy Constable R. A. DeLacy and locked up to await an examinatipn. He confesses his guilt, but says he was drunk at the time, and that his intention in breaking into the saloon was to get a drink of whisky. The chain and the money tempted him and he succumbed. The overcoat, which was reported as among the articles stolen, has since been found in the saloon. Atkinson is reported to be of good family, and, so far as known, this is his first offence. Whisky! John Smith Acquited.

June 8-81 Herald.

In Department 1 of the Superior Court yesterday the case of the People vs. John Smith for the burglary of A. L. Huyck's room was heard. The prosecution made out a very strong case of circumstantial evidence. It was shown that on the night of May 30th, and shortly after the discovery of the robbery, the accused was seen in the vicinity of the house, that he went into the Union Chop House and spent money lavishly, that coin corresponding to the kind stolen was found on his person when captured, that a plug of tobacco was identified by Huyck was found in his pocket. The defense proved that he had previously had similar gold and silver coins, that on the night of the robbery a man who slept in the room awoke, went into the room where a dim light was burning and saw a man going from the room, whom he described and showed the defendant not to be the man. The Judge gave some short instructions to the jury, at the request of the attorney for the defense, W. L. Gill. After the jury had been out about fifteen minutes a verdict of not guilty was returned.

John Smith celebrated his release from the County Jail, where he had been held on a charge of burglary, by getting gloriously drunk yerterday. John had a narrow escape, and he probably felt good over it.

Aug 5 1881

The two men, Powers and Robertson, who were charged with the offense of robbery, and to which they plead "not guilty," were allowed yesterday by the Court, on the motion of the District Attorney, to withdraw the plea of not guilty of robbery and plead guilty to a charge of petit larceny. The two men, as our readers remember, got into a row, in an El Dorado street saloon, with J. M. Ashworth, when they snatched a trade dollar from him and ran away with it. The District Attorney gave two reasons for his motion—first, robbery is a taking by force, and the force in this case did not happen until after the money had been taken. The second point is that the force must precede and be the means of the taking, which was also not the case in this instance. The Court then granted the request of the District Attorney, and the men will be sentenced Monday.

July 1-81 1050

Yesterday morning R. E. Harvey, the man charged with embezzling two watches from Mrs. Gates, of Alma, was brought before Judge Buckner for examination. Charles Wright represented the prosecution. Harvey made no defense. Mrs. Gates testified that he came to her house in April and stayed two weeks; that she entrusted two watches to him, which he was to take to a designated place to be repaired; this was on the 2d of May. He did not take the watches to the place designated. She related the circumstance of receiving the letter announcing his death, heretofore published in this paper; had never received the watches, but had heard of them through a friend in Oakland. When he left he said he would return. Officer Edson testified that he first saw Harvey in Chico, where he had gone to bring him back. This was June 25th; he was then under arrest. He said that he had sold one of the watches in San Francisco and had traded the other off in Sacramento. He said that he had written the letters to mislead those who might be searching for him. He was held to answer for embezzlement, with bail fixed at $5,000, in default of which he was committed.

Jailor Fitts went to San Quentin yesterday with R. E. Harvey, the devout fraud, who goes to serve two years in the State Prison for embezzlement. July 16-1881

Hope, the Burglar.

Jimmy Hope, the bank burglar, on trial before Judge Freelon, moved, by counsel, to set aside the information against him on the ground of irregularity in the proceedings. His counsel also moved his discharge for the same reason, and upon the denial of the motion, filed a demurrer, the hearing of which was set for August 13th. 1881

Oct THE HOPE CASE ENDED. 1881

Jimmy Made Liable to a Seven Years' Sentence for Burglary.

The case of Jimmy Hope, the Eastern bank explorer, was submitted to the patient jury which has heard the case yesterday afternoon, at half-past two o'clock, after a charge by Judge Freelon which consumed nearly an hour. The jury, after an hour's retirement and deliberation, called for the burglars' tools which had been offered in evidence, and a few moments later they called for the diagram of the premises. The tools and diagram were furnished them, and at four o'clock they knocked at the door of the jury-room and announced that they had agreed. They were brought into Court, answered roll-call, and announced as their verdict: "We find the defendant guilty of an attempt to commit burglary in the first degree." The Court set next Saturday as the day for pronouncing its judgment. Under this verdict Hope may be sentenced to seven and one-half years' imprisonment in the State Prison. When the jury announced their verdict the Court-room was crowded with spectators, who had waited for the verdict. Not a sound was heard during the recording of the verdict. Hope neither moved a muscle nor showed by any outward appearance that he was at all interested in the matter decided by the jury. But after the Court-room had been cleared, he said he was very well satisfied with the result, and congratulated Mr. Coogan on the result of his endeavors in his behalf. In the most nonchalant manner he submitted to the handcuffing by Deputy Sheriff Tuttle, and proceeded to the Broadway Jail.

How Two Thieves were Captured. 1881

CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—Last night two well-known thieves, Eddie Preston and Jack Flaherty, went to Joliet, robbed a store of $35,000 worth of silks and checked trunks containing them for Chicago. The baggage-man in handling them felt the bolts of silk jolt, and supposing they were dead bodies telegraphed to Chicago, and on their arrival here this morning the thieves were arrested and returned to Joliet. Preston is an old-time California convict and has broken jail at Oakland three times.

His Real Name.

Information comes from Oakland that the Edward Preston arrested in Joliet, Ill., for burglarizing a jewelry store is none other than Edward Gilfeather, who escaped from Oakland while awaiting trial. He would undoubtedly have received a state prison sentence if he had not escaped.

Hope Denied a New Trial. 1881

The appeal of Jimmy Hope, the bank burglar, to the Supreme Court has been denied, the judgment of the lower court having yesterday been affirmed. Hope was convicted of breaking into the banking house of Sather & Co., on the night of June 27, 1881. He was sentenced to seven years and six months imprisonment. It was said on the trial that Hope had a large sum of money, the proceeds of other bank robberies. Every effort was made to acquit him, and the appeal was taken on a technicality, viz.: That one of the jurors visited the premises during the trial, of his own accord, and not upon the order of the court. The lower court held this to be immaterial. Upon this point the Supreme Court says: "We are unable to see how the case of the defendant could possibly be prejudiced thereby."

Alvino F. Pico, arrested on Saturday evening for grand larceny, in stealing a horse and buggy belonging to S. P. Stockton, the wine merchant, was brought before Judge Veuve yesterday forenoon and the preliminary examination was set for the 6th at 10 a. m. In default of $2,000 bail he was committed to the County Jail. To a TIMES reporter yesterday Pico made a statement of his connection with the affair. He says that he borrowed the buggy from a young man attending the Normal School, and that afterwards he drank some wine with a number of Italians, which made him sick for several days. It was while in a demented condition that he disposed of the horse to Sresovich.

A Mare is Legally a Horse.

The Supreme Court yesterday decided the case of the People vs. Alvino F. Pico, convicted of grand larceny for stealing from the Normal School grounds, in San Jose, a roan mare belonging to S. P. Stockton. At the trial the defendant's counsel moved the Court to instruct the jury to acquit him on the ground of variance, in that he was charged with stealing a horse, while the proof showed the animal taken was a mare. This was refused, and the higher tribunal, in sustaining the ruling, adverted to the fact that at common law the word "horse" was used in its generic sense, and was held to include all animals of the horse species. The Court also failed to see that an error was committed by the Superior Court in denying the motion to submit to a jury the question of the defendant's sanity, as it appears that the Court did not pronounce judgment so long as any doubt existed as to defendant's insanity.

Pico Convicted.

The case of Alvino F. Pico, charged with grand larceny, in having stolen a horse, was submitted to the jury about 5 o'clock last evening. Sheriff Williams has returned to San Jose without Sidney Day, the hore-thief, who was sentenced to three years imprisonment instead of ten years or more, as prescribed by law. The telegram from Judge Belden ordering him to bring the prisoner back to San Jose, was not placed in his hands until Day had been turned over to the State Prison authorities. This probably disposes of the matter, and Day is very likely doing an extra amount of chuckling at his unlooked-for good fortune.

Held for Arson.

This morning Marshal Adams, of Gilroy, brought to the County Jail Henry Gibbs, held for arson in the Justice Court of Perry Dowdy, Gilroy. The facts are these: On last Monday the said Gibbs did willfully burn the station, platform, etc., at Tennant's, nine miles this side of Gilroy. He gave himself up to the Gilroy officer and says he is sorry. He plead guilty when arraigned before Judge Dowdy. He says his reason for burning the station was that he was mad at the railroad company, because the conductors put him off the freight train every time he tried to get a ride. He said if he had had any more matches he would have burned the wood and everything else belonging to the company; said that he stole his way from Wyoming to San Francisco. He now awaits trial in the Superior Court.

Willie Barker's Case.

The case of the People vs. Willie Barker is set for trial next Monday in Department 1 of the Superior Court. The Defendant was associated with Angel Camalio, John Britton, Eulalio Martinez et al., and was arrested for the larceny of a saddle, the only crime that could be traced to his door. He has once been convicted of petty larceny. Yesterday afternoon District Attorney Campbell moved in Court to dismiss the charge preferred and allow the defendant to plead guilty to petty larceny. He had been led to this conclusion from a careful review of the facts surrounding the case, and from conversations with the Chief of Police. That officer was of opinion that Willie was not a hardened boy, and that the ends of justice would be better subserved by his being allowed to plead guilty to petty larceny than sending him to San Quentin for a felony. The Judge took the matter under advisement.

Pleaded Guilty.

Eulalio Martinez, after the verdict of acquittal in the Cassillas case yesterday afternoon, came into court and pleaded guilty to the charge for which Casillas was tried, viz., the burglary of Mrs. Lynch's house, last May. He acknowledged his guilt on the stand as a witness in the Cassillas case, so there was really no other course for him to take. Martinez is a youngster about 16 years of age, and there are several charges of burglary booked against him, besides one of assault to murder, alleged to have been committed upon an Indian near Los Gatos, last Spring.

The trial of Jose de la Cruz Soto for the murder of Alexander Male, a Mayfield saloon and restaurant keeper, on the 4th of January, 1882, was commenced in Department 1 of the Superior Court yesterday forenoon. District Attorney Campbell and his deputy, Luis Arques, assisted by Judge Wallis, appeared for people. The defense was represented by Houghton & Reynolds.

A Murder Trial.

SAN JOSE, May 24.—In the Soto murder case today, Rafael Soto, sixteen years old, son of the defendant, was sworn for the prosecution, and testified that he saw his father shoot Male; that he drove to the saloon of deceased, in Mayfield, at his father's command. The boy was much affected during the recital, and once had to leave the Court-room to compose himself. The defence objected to his testimony on the ground of mental incapacity, but Judge Belden, after a personal examination of the boy, overruled the objection and admitted the testimony as competent. The boy said his father had been mad at Male ever since the difficulty he had had in Male's saloon, which resulted in his receiving a blow over the head from a pistol in the hands of deceased. Soto was very drunk when he came in town to do the shooting. The defence will open to-morrow.

1885 Recapture of a Noted Stage Robber.

SAN JOSE, Feb. 4.—Dick Fellows, the noted stage robber, was captured at six o'clock this evening, near Guadalupe mines, by Chief Haskell and Constable Edson, of this city. They came upon him at a house in a ravine, where he was awaiting supper. He was sitting down and was taken unawares, and made no resistance. The officers brought him to the County Jail, where he now is. Detective J. B. Hume, who is in town, will take charge of him on Monday and take him to Salinas City for trial for robbing the Soledad stage on the 13th of January. Fellows is a very intelligent man, and Hume considers him the boss stage robber of the coast. Since July last, he has robbed seven stages, and relieved Wells, Fargo & Co. of thousands of dollars. After his escape from Constable Burke, one week ago, he made his way across Guadalupe Creek, and remained concealed in an outhouse two days, when he went to Dr. Gunikel's barn, on Stockton avenue, and stayed until routed out last Thursday afternoon. Then he started toward Los Gatos, and that night hid in a haystack. On Friday, he got a case-knife at a house, and during the day removed his handcuffs.

DICK FELLOWS CONVICTED.

He Pleads His Own Case and Receives a Life Sentence.

The trial of Dick Fellows, alias G. B. Liglte, the notorious stage robber, was brought to a close at Santa Barbara on last Thursday. He was charged with robbing Wells, Fargo & Co.'s stage. His daring escape from the custody of the constable, who was conducting him to jail and his success in evading for several weeks the most thorough search for him attracted great attention at the time. Fellows is educated, and is connected with a respectable family in the East, his brother being a State Senator in the Kentucky Legislature. During his trial he refused to be represented by a lawyer, and conducted his own defense. He based the justification of his robbery on the assertion that Wells, Fargo & Co. was engaged in an illegal business, and that it could be no crime to steal from them. He read his defense from fifty sheets of manuscript. The jury disagreed with him in his view of the case, and found him guilty. The Judge sentenced him to imprisonment for life.

March 21 1882 An Interesting Case.

A young man whose father is a Chancellor on the English Bench, and whose family is wealthy and aristocratic, was to-day discharged from our County Jail, having served a term for petty larceny. The young man himself is well educated and of good presence, and for several years held a good appointment under the Government at Washington, which he resigned to come to this coast. His funds became exhausted in unprofitable speculations, and he gave way to an appetite for drink. During a drunken spree a few weeks ago, in a neighboring village, he demanded back money he had advanced for board, and on being refused, went to the till and helped himself, the act resulting in his conviction. This is not the story of the man himself, as he is reticent and unapproachable in regard to his personal history, but of those who are conversant with the facts. One of our prominent merchants knew him well at Sacramento as a brilliant social light. It may be added that for eight years he has kept his whereabouts a secret from his family, but interested friends have recently communicated with his father, who it is believed will endeavor to reclaim him.

Was afterwards arrested in Alameda for Burglary

Charge Reduced.

Aug 18 ——— 1882

W. J. Mahony, who was charged with grand larceny, in stealing jewelry from Lillie Frost, on the 24th of March, and who was held to answer to the Superior Court, was tried before Justice Buckner this morning, where he entered a plea of guilty of petty larceny, and was sentenced to imprisonment thirty days in the County Jail. It is understood that the District Attorney will dismiss the pending charge, as conviction would be difficult; hence the leave to plead guilty of petty larceny.

A Girl Shot by Her Father. 1882

SAN JOSE, April 28.—At the Willows, a suburb of San Jose, about six o'clock this morning, G. H. Geinghry shot his daughter, Amanda Ellen Geinghry, three times. One bullet entered the left shoulder and passed through her body, one passed through the region of the kidneys and one wounded the wrist. The wounds are believed to be mortal. Death is not imminent. The man has been arrested. He says his daughter struck him, and he only intended to frighten her. She says her father was violently opposed to her receiving attentions from a young man, was jealous of her, and, to use her own words, "wanted to love her as if she were not his daughter."

GEINGHRY SENTENCED.

He is to Be Imprisoned Ten Years in the Penitentiary.

SAN JOSE, May 22.—George H. Geinghry was before Judge Belden for sentence to-day, he having pleaded guilty to the charge of assault to murder his daughter Mamie. Judge Belden gave Geinghry a long lecture, pointing out the heinousness of the crime. It was not only an attempt to commit the highest crime known to law, it was a cowardly assault on a woman, that woman his daughter, and she an orphan, whom it was especially his duty to protect and defend. He referred in general terms to the other features of the crime, and stated that his investigations in the act afforded nothing in extenuation. For humanity's sake he would accept his plea that he was drunk and knew not what he did. He then sentenced Geinghry to ten years in the State Prison. The prisoner appeared unmoved by the sentence.

June 2 The Fresno Fraud. 1882

Louis D. Cole, the young man from Fresno with the bogus bank account and a barrelfull of checks, is now a prisoner in the County Jail. Yesterday Chief Shoemaker swore out a complaint in Justice Veuve's court charging him with obtaining goods from L. Willard under false pretences. The offense is punishable by imprisonment in the State Prison, and the examination was set for Saturday at 2 p. m. Cole could not give the bail, $500, and so went to jail. Several months ago the young man was in San Jose, and attempted to victimize Woods, the hatter, but Woods was too sharp for him. On his visit to Alum Rock a few days ago he contracted a wine bill, and gave Poppelwell a bogus check in payment, but Mr. Thad. Hobson, who was with Cole at the time, "took up" the check, so that Poppelwell will not lose.

A tramp, who gives his name as Frank Jones, was detected this morning by a Portuguese family named Ochoa in stealing some socks from a fence on their premises, on the Polhemus tract, in the neighborhood of the pottery. Ochoa and his son gave chase and captured the tramp, after bestowing upon him a lively fusilade of clods and rocks, one of the latter felling him and inflicting a severe wound on his head. They brought their prisoner to the police office, where the gash in Jones' head was sewed up. He then plead guilty to petty larceny and was sentenced to thirty days in the County Jail—all inside of an hour from the time of arrest. Jones says they had no business to make a clothesline of the fence if they did not want their things stolen, and says he will prosecute them for battery as soon as his term expires.

John Mack, alias Griffin, alias Malone, pleaded guilty yesterday morniag in Justice Buckner's Court to a charge of petit larceny in stealing $1 from the till of James O'Neil's saloon, and was sentenced to 20 days in the County Jail. This thief of many names had just been released from the jail after serving a sentence of six months for a similar offence committed in Mayfield. He was released about 5 o'clock p. m. and was in custody again within an hour or two. His action in pleading guilty, indicates that he belongs to the band of bummers who prefer to live in the County Jail—where they have nothing to do but eat and sleep—than to make an honest living by working on the outside. If the jailers will give this fellow steady employment on the pump it will probably induce him to leave the county when his term expires.

Aug 26 ——— 1882

At 9 o'clock last evening word was brought to the Police Office that a party of drunken tramps were making night hideous at the S. P. R. R. bridge over the Guadalupe. Chief Shoemaker with Constable Hall and Officer Hobson started out to investigate, and on arriving at the spot found nine tramps at the wind-up of a jamboree. In arresting one of them, who afterwards gave the name of Joseph Munroe, Constable Hall was cut on one of his fingers by a razor, which Munroe held as a weapon of defense. Shoemaker and Hobson went to his assistance, and in the scuffle which ensued they were also cut—the Chief slightly on one of his fingers and Hobson more severely in the palm of his hand. The officers succeeded in landing the whole batch, nine in number, safely at the City Prison.

The Cullen Boys.

Oct 5 ——— 1882

Yesterday morning George and James Cullen, the boys who stole the horses of Clendennin and Hart from in front of St. James Square, were brought before Judge Belden—George for sentence and James to plead. George, the elder, who had already pleaded guilty, was sentenced to one year in the State Prison. He stated that he enticed James to go into the nefarious scheme, and upon that admission, James was permitted to plead guilty to petty larceny, and, waiving time, was sentenced to ten days in the County Jail. Judge Belden afterwards stated that he would indorse a petition to the Governer for the pardon of the lad, who would probably be pardoned. As to James, the Judge took him in the morning to his former employer, J. Lamb, the blacksmith, and that gentleman promised to take the boy back on his release from jail and make him a member of his own family.

Nov 3 1882

Yesterday forenoon Deodor Herisen was brought before Judge Belden to plead to two charges of grand larceny—stealing money from G. Horner and a watch from Pat Welch. He pleaded not guilty to the charges of larceny, but entered a plea of guilty to the allegation of former conviction of felony. His prison record shows that in July, 1870, he was convicted in San Francisco, under the name of Ernest Blum, of burglary, and sentenced to three years in the State Prison. His term expired on the 19th of February, 1873. On the 11th of March, 1875, he again entered San Quentin, having been convicted in San Francisco, under the name of Ernest Schuman, of grand larceny. He was released on the 15th of September, 1881.

Mike O'Day and Edward Schultz, the boys arrested for grand larceny in stealing two horses from in front of St. James Square on the forenoon of the 26th inst., were examined yesterday before Judge Buckner on the charge of stealing Clendennin's horse. The testimony of Clennin was to the effect that he had hitched his horse at the place described, and when he went after it it was gone. Next saw the boys in the County Jail. Dr. Riddle, whose horse was also stolen at the same time, gave similar testimony. Constable Hall deposed that he arrested the defendants on the Monterey road, near the Twelve Mile House. They were ridlng the horses and said they had intended to go to Gilroy and leave the horses there, after sending word back to the owners where they could be found. They did not deny taking the horses. No testimony was offered for the defense, and the boys were held to answer before the Superior Court. Nov 30 Highwaymen Arrested. 1882

On the evening of Nov. 24th Jesus Banios, and a man named De Lanza, met on the road near Gilroy a wealthy French citizen of that burg, and went through him in the most approved style. The only booty they got was a silver watch of no great value, but the old gentleman was very indignant at the treatment he had received and instructed the officer to spare no pains to effect their capture. City Marshal Bennett traced them to this city Monday, but losing the trail went on to San Francisco. Chief Shoemaker yesterday afternoon heard of them along the line of the Narrow Gauge road, headed for Santa Cruz, and telegraphed Bennett to that effect. The officer, yesterday morning, took the train for that place, where he arrived ahead of his men. He then took the back track and arrested them about 2 P. M. at San Lorenzo.

The Young Robbers.

Dec 6 ——— 1882

Robert Gleason and Jesus Bonales, the two young men who pleaded guilty of robbing an old man near Gilroy, were brought before Judge Belden this morning for sentence. Judge Belden said he had made inquiry into the circumstances surrounding the robbery, and had learned that one of them held the old man while the other robbed him. The crime of robbery may be a little more than grand larceny and a little less than man slaughter, and the penalty may range between that fixed for those crimes. As it did not appear that any deadly weapons were exhibited or used, the charge under consideration was of a simple nature, in view of which fact the Court imposed a sentence of five years each in the State Prison. at Folsom

Dec 23 1879

Ah Fie, the Chinaman arrested for the burglary of the shoe store of Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Ford, was brought before Judge Belden yesterday afternoon and an information for burglary was presented. The District Attorney after taking this action made a statement to the Court to the effect that the evidence was such as to render a conviction improbable and uncertain. He therefore moved that the defendant be allowed to plead guilty to petty larceny. Ah Fee, by his counsel, W. L. Gill, waived time, and the plea was entered. The Judge thereupon sentenced the defendant to ninety days in confinement the County Jail.

Aug Bribery. 8-1881

Some time about the last of April, 1881 Ah Him and Ah Louie made a proposition to Chief Haskell to give him $50 per week or $200 per month, if he would keep five policemen in Chinatown, so as to break up a gambling den. The secret of the matter was that there were twenty-three games among the Chinese, and these parties were to make the Chinese, (after the police had broken up the den,) pay them $5, for each game carried on, and thereby pay the police and make some money too. Complaint was made against them April 30th last, and the case was tried in Department No. 1 of the Superior Court to-day, District Attorney Campbell appearing for the people, and S. J. Hinds, Esq., for the defense. The jury returned a verdict of "guilty."

Sentence 1 Year in San Quinten

187

People vs Ah Him and Ah Louie—The case is tried with a jury of twelve men as follows: Jas Leland, A S Evans, Thos Egan, James Richardson, F E Smith, B J Rhodes, Truemen Andrews, J Russ, F S Butler, J O Stratton, C H Simonds and Givens George. Thos Vance, D N Haskell and A K Heinlen are examined for the people. People rest. Defendants have no evidence and the cause is argued by the counsel and the jury retire with a verdict "guilty of bribery."

An Old Offender.

A year ago last July a Chinaman passing under the names of Ah Fook, Ah Sing, or George Henry, as the fancy seized him, was sentenced to the county jail, by Judge Buckner, for 150 days, for stealing chickens—three charges. George Henry proving to be a good cook, he was utilized as such in Jailer Ackerman's kitchen, his family at that time living with him in the jail. While serving in that capacity Geo. Henry made his escape and nothing has been heard of him here since that time until yesterday, when he was returned to his old quarters, having been convicted of again robbing hen roosts. He and Ah Chung were detected night before last making away with four sacks of chickens from Mort French's place near Alviso. They were convicted yesterday in Judge Cleneay's Court, and Ah Chung was sentenced to 180 days, and George Henry, the man with a record, to 120. 180

Ah Sing, for assaulting Ah Lum with a pistol and attempting to rob him, was yesterday, after an examination by the Police Justice, held in the sum of $500 to answer to a charge of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit robbery. In default of giving the required bail he was committed to the County Jail. Ah Sing is an old convict. January 4 81.

March 22 Not Guilty. 1881

Ah Sing charged with an assault with intent to rob, was tried in the Superior Court, Department No. 1, yesterday, Judge Archer defending him. A number of Chinese witnesses were examined through an interpreter. About twelve o'clock the case was given to the jury and after being out for two hours and a half, they returned with a verdict of not guilty. The defendant was discharged.
